

Westside Forum™ presents

Sofia Martinez

on

Arizona's Attack on Cultural Education; Could It Happen Here?

Sofia worked as educator and administrator New Mexico for 17 years. Currently, she is working with the Southwest Research and Information Center (SRIC). She is with the University of New Mexico in the Language Literacy and Socio-cultural Studies Program.

Ms. Martinez is co-founder of Los Jardines Institute an educational and agricultural non-profit in the Albuquerque's South Valley. Helping to build support for rural and urban agriculture, sustainability, healthy communities and cultural exchange: to reclaim knowledge, build community, and power that recognizes our geographic, resource, human and species interdependence.

3:00 PM – Saturday – May 19, 2012

Unitarian Universalist Westside Congregation 1650 Abrazo Road (west of Unser, corner of Inca), Rio Rancho

Westside Forum is a project sponsored by the Social Action Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Westside Congregation as a non-partisan service to the larger community. While there is no attendance fee, donations are accepted.